

THE COUNSELOR II Procuratore***
(USA, GB - 111') by Ridley Scott with Michael Fassbender, Bradley Cooper.

Counselor is a lawyer who is lured into a world of drug dealing that he is not equipped to cope with. With characters such as the middleman Westray (Brad Pitt) and shady hedonist Reiner (Javier Bardem) the scene is set for dangerous and devastating fallout.

THE WOLF OF WALL STREET

(USA - 165') by Martin Scorsese with Leonardo DiCaprio, Matthew McConaughey

Martin Scorsese's adaptation of convicted wealthy stockbroker Jordan Belfort's memoir chronicling his rise and fall on Wall Street in the 1990s. Corporate banking corruption and investor defrauding are par for the course along with his hard-partying, addiction-fueled personal life.

Ascesa e caduta di un broker di successo, con il grande ritorno di Leonardo Di Caprio, diretto ancora una volta da Martin Scorsese.

NEBRASKA (USA - 115')

by Alexander Payne with Bob Odenkirk, Bruce Dern

The movie focuses on the pathetic, quixotic quest of Woody Grant, a senile and alcohol-addled Korean War veteran. Woody is not only foolish enough to believe he's won a million dollars from one of those sweepstakes letters that the rest of us toss in the trash, he's also insistent on collecting his winnings personally by making the 900-mile trek from Montana, to Nebraska. On foot.

Un ballata folk sulle strade d'America. Tra commedia e dramma, la riscoperta delle radici, nel film che ha spazzato l'ultimo Festival di Cannes.
